

It is time to make plans for the 33rd Annual Solid/Hazardous Waste Conference
Tennessee's Premiere Environmental Event
April 28 - 30, 2004
Gatlinburg Convention Center
Gatlinburg, Tennessee

33rd Annual Solid/Hazardous Waste Conference & Exhibition is scheduled for April 28-30, 2004. This annual environmental event, "The Show of the South", will be held in the Gatlinburg Convention Center located in the heart of the Great Smokey Mountains.

This year's agenda will be enhanced with topics which include solid/hazardous waste, recycling, landfills, superfund, legal issues and a range of other environmental workshops.

Make plans to attend the South's largest and most comprehensive waste management conference. Renew relationships with old friends and clients as well as make new contacts and network with potential new customers.

A schematic of available booths is provided for your information and choice. All booths will be 10' X 10'. Please note that corner booths are $475.00 and all other booths are $425.00.

We will once again give away a big screen TV to one of our guests. To be eligible, each person will have to visit each booth and have each exhibitor stamp their exhibit card. All eligible cards will be dropped into a special basket for a drawing. The drawing will take place in the exhibit hall following Thursday's luncheon. The lucky winner must be present to receive the TV.

An Opening Reception is tentatively being planned for April 28 from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. in the exhibit hall.

Please call with questions or let us know if we can assist you in any way. As always, we truly appreciate your participation.
